

CROSS IN HAND, ENDS LIFE.

Woman, Hanged With Strips of Skirt, is Found by Children. Children running through a vacant lot at Jerome Avenue and One Hundred and Sixty-sixth Street yesterday afternoon saw the body of a young woman hanging from a tree. Patrolman Goldman cut it down. The woman, who appeared to be about twenty-eight years old, had hung herself with a strip of her skirt. She had tied one end of the strip to a low limb and then had sunk to a sitting position. In her right hand she clutched an ivory cross.

In her pocket was a postal card addressed to Lena Weiss, No. 214 East Forty-seventh Street. At that address the police found nobody who knew such a woman.

MUTUAL SPECIAL FEATURE

..... Trapped and Helpless in the Flooded Submarine!

Tons of water were roaring in—tons of water were crushing the subsea boat! The air supply shut off, Cleo fainted in the naval investigator's arms. Iron-muscled seamen wilted. Death was closing gnarled fingers around America's hope of supremacy on the seas!

This U. S. Submarine Would Rule the Oceans!

TODAY—See the Greatest Undersea Scenes Ever Pictured—in The Film Novel of the Hour!

See the Terrific Subsea Struggle
—An Electrifying Feature of Chapter One

Enormous fortunes have been spent to make these wonderful undersea scenes—to build this tremendous production. "The Secret of the Submarine" is absolutely new, different, unrivaled in motion pictures. Based on an invention-idea which may yet save our nation from destruction, a mighty plot develops which leads 'round the world! See the submarine crew fainting for air—then getting it direct from the water. This "secret" may yet revolutionize the world's naval warfare!

Be swept away in your enthusiasm—as countless thousands have all week—by the hair-raising, dive-boat adventures—the international intrigue for its possession—the vicious money-power seeking it—the desperation which stops not at human life!

Thomas Chatterton, the popular leading man, and dazzling Juanita Hansen, the heroine, make great individual successes—backed by an intrepid company. E. Alexander Powell, the famous war correspondent, has written the powerful novelization—read it in this newspaper. Don't fail to see this film masterpiece.

TODAY—See "The Secret of the Submarine" at These Theatres:

BROADWAY—First St., Hoboken, N. J., SATURDAY.
CANTO—On Kettle Ave., Kearns, N. J., SATURDAY.
REGENT THEATRE—10th St. and 11th Ave., New York City, SATURDAY.

BROADWAY—Broadway and 11th Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., SUNDAY.

Read the Story in the

New York Evening World

Motion pictures produced by the American Film Company, Inc., and distributed through 88 Mutual Film Exchanges in America. Exhibitors: Write or wire your nearest Mutual Exchange.

350 POLICEMEN START TRAINING TO BE SOLDIERS

First Batch of 3,500 to Take Course, Camping at Fort Wadsworth.

The task of making 3,500 guardians of the peace into soldiers ready to battle if peace should pass from this country began this morning when the first detachment of New York policemen who are to undergo military training this summer went into camp at Fort Wadsworth. There will be nine camps, each lasting two weeks, and this morning 350 husky members of the force reported for service.

Wearing their police uniforms the men left Pier A on the police boat Patrol at 7.30, and three-quarters of an hour later they were changing into regular army uniforms at Fort Wadsworth. The men worked with despatch under the direction of Capt. E. B. Martindale, U. S. A. who is in command of the encampment, and Inspector Henry Cohen of the Police Department, and they immediately set to work levelling the camp ground and erecting their tents.

Many of the men have had previous military training, and from their brisk business-like way of starting in it would be hard to tell that they were undergoing their first day of preparedness training. Cooks selected from the Police Department prepared the first meal of corn beef and cabbage at noon.

Company A is in command of Capt. August Kubie, with Lieuts. Charles McKinney, Edgar J. Harle and Percy M. Do Bois as aides; Company B is under the command of Capt. William Coleman, with Eugene Casey, Gardner Dunham and Abram Skidmore as lieutenants, and Capt. Matthew Robinson is in command of Company C, aided by Lieuts. De Loss W. Evans, Robert W. Specht and Archibald McNeill.

To-morrow afternoon a dress parade and band concert will be given at Fort Wadsworth, with Commissioner Woods and Chief Inspector Schmittberger as guests. Visitors will be allowed in the camp only on Sunday.

BLANCHE SWEET ON STRAND'S SCREEN.

For the week beginning to-morrow the Strand Theatre will present Blanche Sweet in "The Thousand-Dollar Husband," a photo play written for her by Margaret Turnbull and produced by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company. In this film play Miss Sweet has the role of a maid-of-all-work in a boarding house near a college town. She falls in love with one of the college students, who burns the midnight oil over a poker table. When a wealthy uncle leaves her a fortune with the provision that she marry immediately the waitress decides to purchase the college boy as a bridegroom.

NEW CHAPLIN COMEDY AT LOEW THEATRES.

Charlie Chaplin's latest picture "Police" will be shown in addition to the vaudeville programme throughout the week at Loew's American Theatre and Roof. The vaudeville bill will be headed by Harry Tate in "Motoring," Little Caruso in a singing spectacle will be the headliner the latter part of the week.

Marguerite Snow in "Notorious Gallagher" will be shown at Loew's New York Theatre and Annex to-morrow; Charlie Chaplin in "Police" on Monday and Tuesday, and other new photo-plays every night thereafter.

THE Automobile Simplified

BY

FREDERICK C. GUERRICH, M. E.

An Intimate Talk on the Working Units of the Automobile—discussed in such a way that the Layman can easily understand them.

This Exclusive Feature Will Appear in the BROOKLYN CITIZEN EVERY SUNDAY

In the Automobile Section BEGINNING SUNDAY, MAY 28th, 1916

Order The Sunday Citizen in advance of your news-dealer.

"With a sudden sharp swoop the car shot from the road and out upon the beach. Paralyzed with amazement more than fear, Gloria was carried across the sand straight into the waves. They rushed toward her as if the ocean were hungry for her. Gloria was only the more exultant from this new experience. She stood a moment on the car, then—"

In Today's New York Evening World

—you'll find the first installment of this fascinating motion picture novel, Gloria's Romance—the first installment of the word-story by the noted authors, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hughes. Read it—it's a masterpiece of fiction! Then go to the Globe Theatre, Broadway at 46th Street, and see this interesting story enacted in the most beautiful pictures you ever saw—George Kleine's greatest cinematographic achievement—featuring the renowned star

Miss Billie Burke in GLORIA'S ROMANCE

Supported by HENRY KOLKER
A Motion Picture Novel by Mr. & Mrs. RUPERT HUGHES

See charming Billie Burke portray the role of Gloria in this wonderful society romance. See her in the newest Parisian gowns—special creations by Lucile, Henri Bendel and Balcom. See her in the fashionable environment of Palm Beach, Florida. You'll enjoy every chapter of this cheerful novel. See the pictures! Read the story!

TODAY—at the GLOBE THEATRE

Broadway at 46th Street

Daily and Sunday 2 P. M. to 11 P. M.

ALL SEATS 25c
Except Sat., Sun. and Holidays.

Read the Story by Mr. & Mrs. Rupert Hughes

IN TODAY'S NEW YORK EVENING WORLD